Social and Personal

The wedding of Miss Fannie Burbage Wortham to Mr. James Sidney Swan, taking place in Holy Trinity Church this afternoon at half-past 5 o'clock, is an interesting party event of today, the contracting parties being among the most popular young people in the city.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Ada Susie Parrish to Mr. T. Asa Broadus, of Suffolk, which will be performed in the home of the bride's parents, No. 2822 East Grace Street, next Tuesday morning, October 13th, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Parrish is the daughter of Mrs. Ella A. and the late J. W. Parrish. Mr. Broadus is associated in business with the Suffolk Store and Foundry Company, and the announcement is an interesting one to the many friends of bride and groom-elect.

Miss Eugenia Aunspach will be in her studio parlors at No. 315 East Franklin Street, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons, from 4 to 6 o'clock, to meet any one interested in her classes for literature, reading, spelling and recitation. Her literature courses include the special study of Tennyson, Browning, Shakespeare and Southern poets, brief studies of the nineteenth century poets and a careful review of the Biblical book of Job.

In these courses Miss Aunspach proposes to apply, in all cases, resulting truth to the purposes of everyday life.

Mr. T. Garnett Tabb left Richmond last Saturday evening over the Old Dominion for New York, on his way to London, Conn. There he will join Mr. Beltrine Blair and attend the convention of general managers and agents of the Travelers' Insurance Company. Messrs. Blair and Tabb's past success in their parlor readings gives delightful assurance of the promise her classes hold.

A meeting of the city union of King's Daughters of Richmond will be held in the Woman's Christian Association building, No. 711-713, this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. J. Caskie Cabell, of No. 610 East Franklin Street, who has returned from her recent visit to the summer resort, will open limited classes in English literature and the history of art. Mrs. Cabell's past success in her parlor readings gives delightful assurance of the promise her classes hold.

At the recent wedding of Miss Sue M. Hale, the daughter of Colonel E. C. Hale, of Elk Creek valley, to Hon. George Lambert, of Wythe county, Va., the bride was escorted in a handsome tailored carriage of ivory, and the maid of honor, Miss Alma Vaughan, of Lynchburg, wore white crepe de chine, with pearls.

The popularity of the bride and groom was evidenced in a number of handsome gifts in cut-glass and silverware. Mr. and Mrs. George Lambert are now taking an extended Northern bridal tour.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Hearon to Mr. Norman Call, which occurred at Brighton September 30th, at Lebanon, Russell county, was ideally beautiful in all that goes to make up a marriage.

The Methodist Church, South, of which her father is pastor, was the scene of the wedding. The color scheme being green and white, garlands of rhododendrons were draped from the center of the chancel to the sides of the church, while from the center hung a lover's knot of broad white satin ribbon.

A REBELLION

Food Demanded.

The human body will stand a lot of abuse, but sometime it will surely rebel and demand the proper food in place of the pasty, starchy, greasy stuff on which it has been made sick.

Then is the time to feed Grape-Nuts, the most scientific and perfect food in the world.

A lady of Washington writes: "Three years ago I was very ill with catarrh of the stomach and was given up to die by one doctor. I laid in bed four months and my stomach was so weak that I could not keep down medicine or have any kind of food, and was so weak and emaciated after four months of this starvation that my daughter could easily lift me from bed and put me in my chair. As weak as my stomach was, it accepted and digested Grape-Nuts without any difficulty the first time that wonderful food was tried."

"My doctor told me that I would have to eat Grape-Nuts, which were pre-digested, and although I felt certain I could not keep the food on my stomach I had to make the trial, and it was a most complete success. I am now strong and in better health than for a great many years, and am gradually growing still stronger. I rely on Grape-Nuts for most of the nourishment that I get. The results have certainly been wonderful in my case, and prove that no stomach is so weak it will not digest Grape-Nuts."

"My baby got so fat from feeding on Grape-Nuts I was afraid I would have to stop feeding to him, but I guess it is a healthy fat, for his health is just perfect." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

ted its fourth anniversary at its Monday night meeting in the unanimous re-election of Admiral Harrie Webster as president. Those who scored highest were Mrs. Bland Spotswood Smith and Mrs. A. M. Pattison. The club will meet next week with Mr. John Tyler.

A most interesting report was that made yesterday afternoon by Mrs. George W. Bagby, chairman of the Jamestown Committee, at the A. P. V. A. Committee meeting held at the Virginia Historical Society. The striking feature of Mrs. Bagby's report was the information that handsome gates have been placed to the enclosure around the church at Jamestown.

The annual meeting of the A. P. V. A. will be held at the Virginia Historical Society, October 20th at 5 P. M. All members are requested to be present, as business of importance to Jamestown will be transacted.

Personal Mention.

Miss Sophie White was officially notified by Commander E. Leslie Spence, of the United States of Veterans yesterday morning that she had been chosen maid of honor, with Miss Agnes Drewry as sponsor, to the Newport News reunion, beginning October 28th.

Miss White and Miss Drewry are both beautiful and charming, and will make admirable representatives of the young Virginia Confederacy. Accompanied by Miss Annie Smith, Miss White will attend the German this week at the University of Virginia, returning to Richmond on Saturday in time for the Horse Show.

Miss Grace Shields and Miss Lily Hill will also be among the Richmond girls at the German.

Mrs. Daniel Huger, of Charleston, S. C., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Bernard Guest, on Park Avenue.

Mrs. Joseph E. Taylor and Miss Elizabeth Taylor, of Laynesville, Ky., who have been spending the summer at the Interment Hotel, Covington, Va., are now in Richmond. They will be joined here by Dr. Taylor, who will come to the Horse Show.

Miss Etta V. V. Samuels has left for Peabody Normal College, Nashville, Tenn., where she expects to complete her work next June.

Mrs. Tutwiler will arrive in Richmond this week from New York to be the guest of Mrs. B. H. Valentine at No. 101 South Third Street.

Miss Elsie Chew, of Pittsburg, Pa., will spend Horse Show week with Miss Nancy Cooke.

Mr. and Mrs. Dulaney, of Baltimore, will be the Horse Show guests of Miss Sophie White.

Miss Katherine Jordan and Miss Sadie Belle Mayer, of Baltimore; Miss Mary Van Evans and Miss Olivia Wilson, of Baltimore, will be with Miss Gay Bernard Wilson next week, who will entertain at cards Friday evening, October 8th, in their honor.

Miss Hallie Ermine Rives' drama from her novel, "Hearts Courageous," has been presented in New York, where it was enthusiastically received, but, according to the Herald, indifferently played.

Dr. Joseph Eggleston's novel, "Tuckahoe," has been put on sale here. It is brought out by the Neale Publishing Company, of Washington, and its subtitle calls it "An Old-Fashioned Story for Old-Fashioned People."

The wedding of Miss Eva Paff and Mr. R. G. Wilkinson took place at 3 P. M. Monday in the home of Mrs. S. P. Rowland, of No. 121 South Pine Street. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkinson left at 4 o'clock for the ceremony for their home in Baltimore.

Masonic Home.

The Masonic Home is being thoroughly renovated. Carpenters are kept busy making necessary repairs and the paint's brush is in evidence everywhere. The grounds, too, are looking beautiful. The dahlia are radiant in loveliness and are so abundant that the superintendent wishes it understood that these can be purchased by the friends of the home most reasonably.

There will on next Wednesday emerge from the portals of this home two graduates, who at the age of eighteen leave the home, entering as liege children. They now leave young and full prepared to fight the battle of life and on this day launch into the mercantile world, both having secured excellent positions in Richmond. Both are sons of young men and as such are a credit to the home.

East End W. C. T. U.

East End W. C. T. U. had a splendid meeting yesterday afternoon. The president, Mrs. Bickers, and the elected delegate to the State Convention, Miss Mildred Pleasant, and Mrs. Wilson, also Mrs. Martha Lee, who attended the annual gathering, each gave an interesting talk on the convention's proceedings and expressed the opinion that it was one of the most enjoyable and profitable for years.

Mr. Arrington Named.

Mr. L. L. Arrington has been appointed agent here for the Home Fire Insurance Company of New York, to succeed the late Charles Crenshaw.

Mr. Arrington is an active and experienced young insurance man, and was for ten years in the employ of Mr. Crenshaw. During the latter's absence about three months ago, Mr. Arrington was admitted to a partnership in the business.

Hustings Court.

In the Hustings Court yesterday Constable Marionell was acquitted of the charge of malicious assault.

George Nicols (colored) and Andrew Brooks (colored) were given six and six months respectively for malicious assault.

Suit Instituted.

Suit was instituted in the Law and Equity Court yesterday by A. P. Hunt vs. H. Z. H. Hullock for $500 for alleged damages. No declaration was filed in the case.

THIRTY-SIX YEARS OF CONTINUOUS SUCCESS.

Just think what that means. Thirty-six long years in business, each year successful, that the previous year, with never a backward movement, always growing larger, ever increasing in popular favor. How many that were doing business 30 years ago are even in existence today. Very, very few. In this age of development and fierce competition, but their customers right and sell what is right, to even hold its own, much less advance. To do otherwise means that the concern of to-day is likely to be out of the running to-morrow. The graveyard of business failures is full to overflowing. But thirty-six years of continuous success and still growing. Think of it! How has it been accomplished? Purely one way. By selling absolutely pure whiskey, direct from our own distillery to the consumer, saving him the enormous profits of the dealers, and carrying out to the letter every duty of business. We make, thereby creating a confidence with our over a quarter of a million satisfied customers that cannot be broken. Read our offer elsewhere in this paper. The Wayner Distilling Company,

TILLMAN TRIAL HAD

TO BE POSTPONED

Juror Suffering With Bilious

Fever and Cannot Attend His Duties.

(By Associated Press.)

LEXINGTON, S. C., Oct. 6.—The continued illness of Milton Sharpe, one of the jurors in the case of J. H. Tillman, necessitated an adjournment to-day of the court until to-morrow. When court was convened to-day Sheriff Caughman announced that Juror Sharpe was in bed unable to appear in court. Upon inquiry by Judge Gary, the attending physician, Dr. Wingard, stated that Sharpe would hardly be able to do jury duty within twenty-four hours, and he was not able to state whether he would be well enough at the end of that period to continue. He is suffering from bilious fever. It was expected that he would be able to appear in court to-day, but improvement, which was noted late yesterday, did not continue.

In view of the announcement of the physician, Judge Gary adjourned court until 9:30 A. M. to-morrow, stating that if the juror was not able to do jury duty by that time, it would be determined then what would be done. The case could proceed with eleven jurors if both sides consented and the defendant waived his rights as to the twelfth man.

SCARED TO DEATH

BY FIVE SPECIALS

Five special officers appeared against Sam Smith, a "scared-to-death" darkey, charging him with breaking into a S. A. L. car and taking away a pair of shoes and a suit of clothes.

The only evidence against him was an old shoe that someone said he had seen the negro wear and which was found near the car.

Sam said he didn't know nothing about it, and never had no old shoe like that. "Squire" Hayes believed him and he was discharged.

John Chapman faced badly though. He was sent down for sixty days on the charge of trespassing and hanging around the railroad yards.

John Christian paid $5 for attempting to shoot Charles Lewis, and the latter paid a similar sum for having a pair of iron knuckles concealed about his person. Tom Giff paid $5 for breaking a chair over Frelitz Brock's head.

Willie Fox beat Lolla Pollard $10 worth and hesitated at it before he paid, because he said it was by accident he shaped her over and kicked her.

"What you gonna do wid me dis yere time," asked Annie Vardick, as she pleaded guilty to being drunk.

"I want $2.50," said "Squire" Lonnie. "I ain't got nary cent," said Annie, and she did a quick step to the pen.

"Squire" Lewis was sent down for thirty days for taking a coat belonging to Andrew Booker.

Goes to Pine Street.

Mr. Esau Cocker has resigned his position as chorister at the Laurel-Street Methodist Church to accept a similar position with the Pine-Street Baptist Church. Mr. Cocker is one of the ablest instructors and choirmasters in the city.

Revival at Laurel Street.

The revival services at Laurel-Street Methodist Church are being continued, with great success. The Rev. George W. Jones, of Norfolk, is assisting the pastor, the Rev. Dr. H. H. Johnson. The singing is under the leadership of Professor J. L. Mitchell.

ROBBERY THEORY BEING LOOKED INTO

Probable Motive for Theft Has Developed—The Scott Murder Mystery.

No developments are apparent in the Scott murder mystery. The detective and police are allowing no grass to grow under their feet in the search for clues by which to trace the murderer.

The theory of robbery is being worked. It was known that Mr. Scott had received a dollar bill late on the night of the murder from Mr. Sam Greenstreet, in payment of an account. That bill has never been reported to have been good, and it seems to the police natural that he should have accumulated more money than that found in small change in the drawer. There was none in his pockets.

No matter by whom the murder was committed, it appears evident that it was followed up by robbery.

The little store at Twenty-eighth and Main, is closed. A trustee will be appointed to look after the settlement of the estate, which consists of the store and dwelling adjoining and a small farm in Amelia county. This estate goes to the children in equal parts.

After the settlement the family expects to remain together and continue their hunt for the assassin of their father.

MERRY MOONSHINERS

A Royal Arcanum Banquet on the Beach at West Point.

Mr. James B. Blanks, grand secretary, and Mr. W. M. Bickers, grand guide, of the Royal Arcanum's official corps, paid the council at West Point an official visit Monday night. An excellent meeting of the party adjourned for a tin cup of wine and the visitors were favorably impressed with the future outlook of the local council. After the hospitalities of the occasion had been dispensed and enjoyed in the council chamber, a select committee of the two officials named and four of the local Arcanumites were chatting on the street corner in the radiant moonbeams, when Regent Elms suggested a stroll to the beach in anticipation of his oyster tug's probable arrival. One of the party admitted for a tin cup of wine from a nearby grocery, another got hold of a bottle of tomato catsup and yet another secured crackers and salt and there was a concerted onslaught on fresh succulent bivalves on the half shell.

YOUNG MEN ARE HERE FROM BULGARIA

Two young Bulgarians, Horatio Natchoff and John Pondoloff, each about eighteen years of age, are in Richmond for a short while.

The young men were educated at an American congregational mission at Sanokor. They speak English correctly, though slowly. They became persuaded that their duty was to be missionaries among their own people, and they have come to this country to complete their education. It is necessary for them, however, to speak English correctly, which they can support themselves while studying. They came to Richmond from Philadelphia, hoping to find the combination they seek of labor and educational opportunities, but they were disappointed here, and are now on their way to West Virginia to seek work in the mines near some school.

LOOP-THE-LOOP

The Thrilling Performance to Be Witnessed Here Next Week.

A great amusement feature will be here next week at the Base-Ball Park, when the Gaskill-Mundy-Levitt Carnival aggregation holds forth. The feature is the great Loop-the-Loop, which was banished from Coney Island recently after one rider had been killed and a half dozen permanently injured. Diavolo, the fearless fellow who does the riding, is a mass of scars from injuries he has received in his dangerous calling. The ride is over in a second or two but the memory of it lasts long after and the looping the loop becomes the talk of the town.

W. C. T. U. Meetings.

The Central W. C. T. U. will hold an interesting and important session this afternoon. Mrs. O. H. Russell, president of the body, has returned home and will be present. Reports will be received from the delegates to the State Convention and much business of importance for the coming year will be transacted. The regular meeting of Golden Rule W. C. T. U. will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the home of the president.

Mr. Meanley Here.

Mr. E. H. Meanley, an old Richmond boy, who has been on the road for Uri and Company, of Louisville, for a long time, is in the city with relatives and on business.

A NEW PASTOR FOR SEVENTH-STREET

A Call is to Be Extended to H. D. C. MacLaughlin.

If he will accept, Rev. H. D. C. MacLaughlin, of Shelbyville, Ky., will be the next pastor of the Seventh Street Christian Church, succeeding Rev. Carey E. Morgan.

The committee of leading members of the church appointed to nominate a pastor will make its report at a congregational meeting to be held at the church this evening at 8 o'clock. This body, after receiving the report of its subcommittees, which has been corresponding with Mr. MacLaughlin for some time prior to his visit here the latter part of September, decided unanimously to recommend the young Kentucky pastor. Although the fall work with all the churches has begun, and it is likely that the Shelbyville congregation will make a hard fight to keep him, it is more than probable that Mr. MacLaughlin will accept if he allows the committee to present his name to the congregation, as it will certainly do this evening unless the body changes its plans from what they are at present.

Mr. MacLaughlin is a young man, of prepossessing appearance, a good speaker, and made a fine impression when here and preached for the church Sunday, September 27th.

Another matter for to-night is the election of several deacons and others of the official board of the church.

MR. A. F. THOMAS

A Well-Known Man Coming to the Senate from Campbell County.

The many friends in this city of Mr. A. F. Thomas will be pleased to learn of his nomination for the State Senate by the Democrats of Campbell county and the city of Lynchburg. Mr. Thomas is well known in this city, having resided in Richmond for a year while he was American representative of the Imperial Tobacco Company together with Mr. Welford C. Reed, of this city. Mr. Thomas has for years been engaged in the leaf tobacco business in Lynchburg, and has long been recognized as a man of force and ability. He is a self-made man, but he is also a well-made one, so far as his equipment for public life is concerned. Those who know him well know him to be a man of great force of character and of fine reasoning powers. This he has demonstrated on more than one occasion. Though not a lawyer, he has a well trained legal mind, and is a ready and fluent speaker.

Mr. Thomas has for several years taken an active part in public life as a private citizen, but never before aspired for office. During the May conference of 1899 he made his debut as a speaker in this city and made a fine impression. Later, when the Constitutional Convention assembled, Mr. Thomas drew a draft of a constitution, which embodied many valuable ideas and was read with interest and profit by members of the convention. His friends predicted that he is going to make a wide reputation in the General Assembly, both as a worker and a speaker. He defeated for the nomination Mr. William O'Brien, an old and substantial citizen and a man of ability.
